WASHINGTON LIBRARY FRIENDS, FOUNDATION, & TRUSTEES ASSOCIATION
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS
For Trustees, Library Boards, Friends, and Foundations

---

Each year the WLFFTA recognizes the achievements and services of Trustees, Library Boards and Friends of the Library by presenting Distinguished Service Awards for specific accomplishments or for long and faithful service. Members of WLA will be given preference. Awards consider both individual and group achievement.

The categories and their criteria are:

Trustee Awards:

1. For advancement of library services through the development of sound library policies.
2. For wisdom, sound judgment and creative ideas in instituting library practices which have resulted in improved library services and efficiency.

Friends/Foundations Awards:

1. For effective advocacy of the library in the community; bringing its services and possibilities to the attention of the community and its leaders.
2. For interest and contribution in support of library service.

Nominations for these awards may be submitted by any WLA member, a Library Board, an individual Trustee, a Friends of the Library group, an individual Friend of the Library, a library foundation or library staff.

- Each nomination will be appropriately documented with a narrative statement and information that supports the nomination.
- It is not mandatory that the award be given annually.
- Nominations will be kept on file/considered for two consecutive years.

Please use the form to submit your nomination(s). Supporting information may be provided on a separate sheet.

CAYAS AWARD FOR VISIONARY LIBRARY SERVICE TO YOUTH

CAYAS (the Washington Library Association's interest group devoted to children's and young adult services) is seeking nominees for the CAYAS Visionary Award. Nominees should be individuals who are dedicated to excellence in library services to youth-children and/or young adults.

Please solicit your institution's library staff, board members and volunteers for suggestions as to who they think should be nominated for this prestigious award. The winner will receive recognition at the annual conference.

The CAYAS Award for Visionary Library Service to Youth recognizes individuals who, through their practice and example, provide inspiration and leadership for others who serve children and young adults in libraries. Those eligible to be nominated for this award include staff or volunteers from public, school or special libraries. The work that qualifies an individual for nomination may include cumulated efforts over several years in the field of library service to youth, or may be a singular and exceptional effort that sets new standards for practice. The purpose of the award is to commend the individual who will receive it, and also to appreciate and bring attention to the remarkable and tireless efforts of all individuals who work with young people in libraries.
