WLA Bibliotherapy in Libraries Summit - Save the Date!

Saturday, November 16, 2024 | Online

Bibliotherapy refers to the use of reading for therapeutic purposes, and as library people, we've all seen the way stories can transform, empower, and heal. Learn more about the affective benefits of reading and how libraries can use these ideas to positively impact the wellbeing of our patrons, communities, and ourselves, even if you're not a licensed mental health professional.

The virtual Bibliotherapy in Libraries Summit offers day-long programming around the concept of bibliotherapy in collection development, readers' advisory, programming, outreach, and more. Come away with the tools and knowledge to help your library community find "shelf help."

All sessions will be recorded and made available to all registrants.

State-Wide Access Registration form opens August 21.

Individual and Organizational Registration forms open September 18.

Keep an eye on the Summit webpage for more details to come!

With the release of the President's proposed FY25 budget, the annual funding process has begun. Learn more about the campaign and spread the word with the tools and resources below:

Did Your Members of Congress Sign On? Fact Sheets & Resources Share the Campaign

Take Action!

The U.S. House Appropriations Committee has passed its budget and proposed a 15% cut to the Institute for Museum and Library Services (IMLS). We need to #FundLibraries, not defund them, to support the vital services that they provide for our students, seniors, jobseekers, veterans, and so many other members of our community.

WLA and the ALA Public Policy & Advocacy Office want to hear YOUR story of how an IMLS Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) grant made an impact in your library and community.

Share Your Story!

By completing this form, you agree to share your story with ALA and WLA for potential campaign use. You may submit this form more than once for multiple narratives, and we encourage sharing this form widely with your network.

It's critical to oppose these drastic proposed cuts, and we thank you for sharing your story with us by Friday, Aug. 16. Looking to take more action? Contact Congress to voice your concerns!

AME created survey regarding AI and education

Action for Media Education \(AME\), a Washington-based nonprofit with a 30+ history of promoting media literacy education, in collaboration with the Northwest Center for Media Literacy, UW, needs your help.

AME is conducting a survey regarding AI and education. They would like to learn more about teacher experience with AI this year so they can develop resources that would be useful for educators next year. This will help inform them about what types of engagement they can offer for the 2024-2025 school year.

Please take 5 minutes or less to tell them about your experience with AI in the classroom, as well as encourage your network to also fill out this survey. The more responses received, the better. Thank you!

Washington State Adult Summer Reading Book Bingo 2024 is here!

Libraries of Washington, please feel free to download, print, and distribute these Book Bingo forms to your community members!

We've seen some libraries in Washington do a drawing for prizes at the end of the summer; we've also heard from readers who are excited to bring back some of the fun of summer reading programs they enjoyed as kids — and that in itself is a prize.

This year's beautiful artwork was created by Sabella Flagg. These cards were adapted from The Seattle Public Library's and Seattle Arts & Lectures bingo program, and this is the eight year we've been able to provide a card for readers across Washington.

Send us pictures of your book bingo displays and we will post them via Washington State Library social media. Post your displays using the hashtag #BookBingoNW2024.

Attend the Youth Services Critical Conversations Club!

Third Thursdays (Sept. 2024-May 2025): 2-3 p.m.

More Information and Registration Here

Relationship-building, professional learning cohorts, and idea-sharing are integral ways for library staff to stay inspired, engaged, innovative, and intentional. To this end, this year Youth Services Critical Conversations Club will serve as an informal and open-ended opportunity for Youth Services folks in Washington State to connect, talk, idea-share, and build community.

Every Third Thursday from 2-3 p.m., the Washington State Library will provide a virtual space for youth services, early learning, school-age, and teen services workers in Washington libraries to come together. Bring your successes, questions, ideas, and challenges, or just chat and build relationships with your Washington colleagues! These meetings are intended as interactive spaces, so they will work best if you come willing to participate with a camera and microphone. WSL will provide breakout rooms by age group served and example discussion questions, but these meetings will be driven by your voices!

Registering will give you access to the Zoom link and calendar file for all monthly meetings between Sept. 2024 and May 2025.

Supported by funding provided by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services administered by the Library Services and Technology Act, through the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

Washington Reads Freely is a months-long effort to celebrate the freedom to read. The effort encourages library patrons and the general public to share their stories of what reading freely means to them. The responses will be collected and shared during Banned Books Week in late September. (Sharing anonymously is an option for participants.)

Libraries of Washington, this toolkit will help you share the Washington Reads Freely campaign with your community members: online, in your libraries in person, or both!

Check out the project website for printable posters and bookmarks and a link to the online form for participants to fill out!

This project is supported by Washington State Library, Humanities Washington, the Washington Center for the Book, and the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

- The Pilcrow Foundation accepts applications from school libraries only if the school library also serves as the community's public library (i.e., it is open to the entire community; has summer hours; is open beyond the school day, including Saturdays; there is no public library in town) and meets the budgetary and rural requirements.

Conference Bulletin

Register for the ARSL 2024 Conference

The Association for Rural & Small Libraries Conference will be held Sept. 11-14 in Springfield, MA.

#ARSL2024 is the conference for rural and small libraries. Our conference planners and presenters understand the constraints of shoestring budgets, small spaces, and limited staffing within small and rural libraries, as well as the unique opportunities for innovation and collaboration. Our conference is packed full of information you can take right back to your library—no scaling down required.

This year's conference theme is "Libraries are (r)Evolutionary." Our conference provides an opportunity to explore the transformative power of rural and small libraries in our communities. Like chrysalises of change, these libraries nurture revolutionary ideas and evolve to meet the ever-changing needs of our patrons. Let's embrace the (r)Evolutionary spirit of libraries and inspire each other.

Please visit the conference homepage for more information and to register!
