PBS Visions of America- Free Info Session

The Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) and PBS Books have partnered together to produce "Visions of America: All Stories, All People, All Places," a digital-first series of videos and virtual conversations that explore the places, people, and stories that have contributed to the America we live in today. These episodes feature author Ada Ferrer, Wing Luke Museum director Joel Tan, Negro Baseball Leagues Museum President Bob Kendrick, attorney and author Walter Echo-Hawk, and many more! Visit www.visionsofamerica.org to learn about each episode.

Join PBS Books National Director Heather-Marie Montilla and Museum and Library Engagement Coordinator Mandi Harris at 12:30pm Pacific on Thursday, May 23rd to learn how libraries can use these episodes and free digital resources such as music playlists, book lists, and discussion guides to host episode showings, have book clubs, and more!

This is a FREE info session and will be recorded! Register today for your spot and if you can't attend, register to receive access to the recording.

Take action to #FundLibraries in Fiscal Year 2025 (FY25)!

With the release of the President's proposed FY25 budget and the launch of Dear Appropriator letters in Congress, the annual funding process has begun. Learn more about the campaign and spread the word with our tools and resources below:

Did Your Members of Congress Sign On? Fact Sheets & Resources Share the Campaign

Take Action!

Each year, as the kick-off of #FundLibraries, ALA's Public Policy and Advocacy Office works with congressional staff to produce and circulate "Dear Appropriator" letters in Congress, addressed to members of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, requesting funding amounts for federal programs that support libraries. The Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) funding supports libraries of all kinds through the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) and its grant programs, including direct-to-state grants. The Innovative Approaches to Literacy (IAL) funding supports school libraries through the Department of Education. The circulation of these letters marks the first and most influential nationwide advocacy action on the federal budget in any given year. This year, the letters are being led by Senator Jack Reed (RI), Rep. Don Bacon (NE-2), Rep. Raul Grijalva (AZ-7), and Rep. Jim McGovern (MA-2).

We need your support: Take action and urge your members of Congress to sign on in support of library funding requests. In every community, in every state, in every part of this country, patrons rely on library services supported by this critical funding. Take action and help preserve and expand this funding and the services it supports!

SCLD Presents: Olympic Library Leadership Incubator (OLLI)

The Washington Library Association School Library Division is excited to announce its first Olympic Library Leadership Incubator (OLLI) for current and pre-service teacher-librarians. Whether you are studying to begin your library career or have been working in libraries for a while, you are invited to join this group designed to supercharge your leadership skills. Recharge your practice, share your passions, and elevate your impact with librarian leaders from across the state.

Participants will:

- Earn up to 14 clock hours;
- Learn practical leadership skills to use in your building, district, and state;
- Network with other like-minded teacher-librarian leaders;
- Form partnerships and collaborate on WLA presentation proposals;
- Discover how to advocate for teacher-librarians within your capacity;
- Elevate the profile of school libraries by being at the forefront of legislative support;
- Tour the State Library and learn how it can support you, your staff, and your teachers.

OLLI's first session will take place Friday, July 26, 2024 in Tumwater, WA from 8:00-4:00. Subsequent sessions will be held virtually and at the 2025 WLA annual conference in Tacoma, April 10-12, 2025.

OLLI is made possible due to the AASL ABC-CLIO Leadership Grant.

Please complete this form by Wednesday, May 29 to apply. A limited number of travel stipends are available. Accepted applicants will be notified no later than Monday, June 3.

Volume 40 | Number 1

Alki The Library is a Growing Organism

alki.pubpub.org/40-1

Read the Latest Edition of Alki Now!

This issue of Alki focuses on the wild potential of thinking of libraries as a “growing organism.” From adapting libraries in changing ecosystems to cultivating connections with patrons and allies to developing personally as librarians and people, this issue covers the varied ways libraries and the people who comprise them grow and thrive.

Inside this issue, you will find articles on what it means to leave one's home for the profession, how one library celebrated and supported first-generation students, what one regional academic library did to adapt to the COVID-19 and post-pandemic landscapes, and how to journal for reader's advisory. You'll also find recommendations for heartwarming translations and playful picks for National Poetry Month, as well as reflections on the growth libraries have sparked and the kind of growth they still need.

Alki wants to hear from YOU!

Call for Papers: We All Belong

Alki's* Summer issue submission window is open!

Alki Summer issues are dedicated to the WLA community goings-on. The Spring conference is the biggest WLA event of the year but it's not the only event of the year. Here is your chance to showcase your involvement in the Washington library community.

Some topic examples:

- WLA 2024 theme, "We All Belong": What does it mean to belong within a library? What does it look like? How can libraries best support a culture of belonging? Where do they fail in this mission? What are the major obstacles or threats? What is your library currently doing to better foster a sense of belonging?
- WLA 2024 presentations and talks
- WLA 2024 happenings: events, ideas, discussions, connections, etc.
- WLA 2024 Photos: we are looking for our next cover image and more for this issue!
- Division, section, or committee activities
- Statements from scholarship, award, and grant winners past and present
- Unofficial member gatherings or events
- Whatever you have to say about WLA!

Creative pieces, art, and photos are always encouraged.

Sign up for your spot today or work through a potential article concept by emailing your name and a working title of your proposed piece to alkieditor@wla.org.

Do you have an article ready? View our submission guidelines here and email your submissions as a .doc, .docx, or Google Doc to alkieditor@wla.org by Tuesday, June 11th.

SDL 2024-2025 Renewal Announcement

The Statewide Database Licensing (SDL) project of the Washington State Library announces the annual renewal of the SDL package of Gale digital database resources for the July 1, 2024 – June 30, 2025 subscription period. All WA non-profit public, academic, school, special, and government libraries are eligible to participate in this statewide cooperative purchase.

Pricing for the 2023-2024 renewal remains unchanged from the previous year. Renewal is automatic for academic, public, and special libraries, unless a cancellation form is received by the end of the renewal period (April 30, 2024). K-12 school districts, individual schools (public or private) and their libraries, renew through their respective Educational Service Districts.

The SDL project is subsidized in part by federal LSTA (Library Services and Technology Act) funding provided by the Institute for Museum and Library Services (IMLS), administered by the Library Development Program of the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State. Any questions or comments may be directed to the Cooperative Projects Librarian, Jude Guzzy.

New participants are always welcome. The official renewal period runs through April 30, although new subscriptions will be accepted at any time. More information, including signup forms and other documents and links are available on the SDL project's signup and renewal page.

Registration Open: Generative AI in Libraries (GAIL) Conference

Registration is now open for the inaugural Generative AI in Libraries (GAIL) Conference. This year's theme is Prompt or Perish: Navigating Generative AI in Libraries. GAIL is a free virtual conference aimed specifically at librarians that seeks to explore the use of generative artificial intelligence (AI) in libraries. It is also an opportunity for librarians to share their experiences with generative AI technologies and their applications in the library setting.

Scheduled to take place June 11, 12, and 13, 2024, from 1:00-4:00 pm EDT each day, GAIL aims to promote a deeper understanding of how generative AI can revolutionize library services like instruction, research support, collection management, access services, outreach, and collaboration. The conference will also address the challenges and ethical considerations this new technology brings to libraries.
