WELCOME TO WLA WEDNESDAY

October 9, 2024

A banner with a dark green background. On the left is a logo for 'BIBLIOTHERAPY IN LIBRARIES SUMMIT' with the tagline 'Healing Through Story' and the date '11.16.2024 • Online'. In the center is a portrait of John Schu, labeled 'John Schu' and 'Keynote Speaker'. On the right is a portrait of Emely Rumble, labeled 'Emely Rumble' and 'Intro to Bibliotherapy'. The background of the banner features faint white outlines of books and a mountain range.

Register for the 2024 Summit Today!

The Washington State Library is excited to provide statewide access for the WLA Bibliotherapy in Libraries Summit. With this all-access pass, library staff from any kind of library in Washington from all levels, roles, and career stages can attend the day-long virtual event courtesy of the Washington State Library. Ask your library's leadership for the Washington Registration Code, or contact Brianna Hoffman at the State Library at brianna.hoffman@sos.wa.gov to receive the code.

WLA and WSL will work together to make clock hours for Washington folks available for as many sessions as possible.

Register Here!

The virtual Bibliotherapy in Libraries Summit will offer day-long programming around the concept of bibliotherapy in collection development, readers' advisory, programming, outreach, and more. Come away with the tools and knowledge to help your library community find “shelf help.”

All sessions will be recorded and made available to all registrants.

Have questions? Please contact info@wla.org to learn more.

FREEDOM TO READ DAY OF ACTION

COMMUNITIES UNITE AGAINST BOOK BANS
OCTOBER 19, 2024

October 19: Freedom to Read Community Day of Action!

We need your help! Join thousands of readers across the country for the #FreedomToRead Community Day of Action on Saturday, October 19.

Libraries and bookstores nationwide are hosting events to unite against book bans. Find an event near you, discover programming ideas for your library, and access toolkits to get the word out at uniteagainstbookbans.org/dayofaction.

Here in Washington, tie your Freedom to Read activities with Washington Reads Freely, a project celebrating the freedom to read. A partnership of Washington State Library, Humanities Washington, and the Washington Center for the Book, library patrons and the general public are encouraged share their stories of what reading freely means to them.

Discover stories being shared by Washington readers and consider rocking your support with some WA Reads Freely swag in the WLA store.

Libraries serve as invaluable hubs in Washington State communities, providing access to information, resources, and educational opportunities for individuals of all ages and backgrounds. However, like many essential institutions, libraries face a myriad of challenges and opportunities for improvement.

The Washington Library Association (WLA) asked all statewide general election candidates to complete a survey to address the concerns of library professionals and the broader library community in our state. This survey aimed to gather candidates' perspectives on key issues affecting libraries and to explore how they envisioned addressing these concerns if elected to office.

Stay tuned for our 2024 Candidate Survey Webpage in next week's newsletter to view responses to increase your awareness and education on candidate positions that may have an impact on your local communities.

Alki Call for Papers: Library in Community

The winter issue of Alki will explore the theme "Library in Community." We are seeking pieces that consider the role libraries play within their communities or institutions, beyond the doors of their domain. How does your library fit into and work with the larger community/institution? What role does your library play in other institutions or the overall infrastructure? How does it impact the lives of its patrons beyond its services?

Possible topics might include:

- Your library's community and context: how does your library engage with the broader community?
- Getting involved in community work and working with community feedback
- Libraries in local, state, and federal politics and policy, including the 2024 election
- Consortium libraries and other library networks
- Your libraries' place in the larger community/institutional infrastructure
- How libraries better the lives of their constituents
- How libraries build networks of solidarity within and beyond the institution
- The library's role in advocacy, resilience, and resistance

As always, creative pieces, art, and photos are always encouraged!

Sign up for your spot today or work through a potential article concept by emailing your name and a working title of your proposed piece to alkieditor@wla.org.

Do you have an article ready? View our submission guidelines here and email your submissions as a .doc, .docx, or Google Doc to alkieditor@wla.org by Tuesday, Oct. 29.

2024 Inland InfoLit Event: Call for Proposals

Inland InfoLit returns at The Hive in Spokane on Nov. 22 from 9 am-4 pm! The theme of the event is Artificial Intelligence (AI).

What is Inland InfoLit? Inland InfoLit is a local consortium of professional educators dedicated to promoting information literacy across the curriculum. Our members are composition and writing center faculty, administrators, and librarians from Inland Northwest colleges and universities. Our mission is to facilitate collaboration and dialogue about information literacy and critical thinking and their applications in teaching writing. We are dedicated to infusing information literacy across the curriculum.

Please visit the new Inland InfoLit website for more information about the event. Registration will open soon.

We are seeking proposals for this one-day event. Please read our official announcement and consider submitting a proposal! The deadline for proposal submissions is Friday, October 18th.

Please contact Greg Bem if you have any questions.

2024 Rural Library Network eSummit: Call for Proposals

The purpose of the Partners for Rural Impact Rural Library Network eSummit is to celebrate the work by rural libraries in the community, connect and convene rural library professionals committed to moving outcomes for rural children and families, provide an opportunity for rural library professionals to network and share best and promising practices, and drive resources and opportunities to rural communities through libraries.

The theme for the 2024 Rural Library Network eSummit is “Books Count: Eliminating Book Deserts in Rural Places” and various tracks may focus on youth services/programs, family engagement, community engagement, health and wellbeing, bookmobiles, funding opportunities, advocacy, grant writing, etc. will enhance the experience for the attendee. Rural Library Network seeks proposals for interactive and engaging breakout educational sessions, roundtables, and/or panels that addresses these topics.

Proposal Selection Process

Proposals to be considered for presentation at the Rural Library Network eSummit must be submitted on the form, 2024 Rural Library Network eSummit “Call for Proposals”. Also, please register for the eSummit here.

Each proposal must be related to the theme and one of the topics above. You may suggest a new topic and connect it to the theme. Each proposal should also reference rural libraries and rural communities.

Breakout Session Presentations

The Breakout Sessions are designed to serve as a 60-minute information sharing, skills-building, and celebration sessions. Each breakout session should plan to have at least 10 minutes dedicated to an attendee Q&A segment.

The review of proposals will begin Oct. 1 until ten different breakout sessions are selected; The plan is to complete the review process by Oct. 30.

Please contact Regina Washington if you have any questions.

2025 ALA LIRT Awards

The ALA Library Instruction Round Table (LIRT) welcomes your submissions for two awards created to recognize excellence in information literacy and instruction.

- The LIRT Librarian Recognition Award honors a practicing librarian for their contributions to information literacy and instruction.
- The LIRT Innovation in Instruction Award honors a library for their innovative approach to information literacy and instruction.

Submissions from all types of libraries (public, school, special, academic) are encouraged. Winners will receive a $1,000 award, a plaque, and a $500 stipend to be used to attend the 2025 ALA Annual Conference.

Submissions will be accepted until Jan. 15, 2025. For full details on how to apply for these awards or to nominate someone to receive them, please see the LIRT Awards site (<http://www.ala.org/rt/lirt/awards>).

Attend the Youth Services Critical Conversations Club!

Third Thursdays (Sept. 2024-May 2025): 2-3 p.m.

More Information and Registration Here

Relationship-building, professional learning cohorts, and idea-sharing are integral ways for library staff to stay inspired, engaged, innovative, and intentional. To this end, this year Youth Services Critical Conversations Club will serve as an informal and open-ended opportunity for Youth Services folks in Washington State to connect, talk, idea-share, and build community.

Every Third Thursday from 2-3 p.m., the Washington State Library will provide a virtual space for youth services, early learning, school-age, and teen services workers in Washington libraries to come together. Bring your successes, questions, ideas, and challenges, or just chat and build relationships with your Washington colleagues! These meetings are intended as interactive spaces, so they will work best if you come willing to participate with a camera and microphone. WSL will provide breakout rooms by age group served and example discussion questions, but these meetings will be driven by your voices!

Registering will give you access to the Zoom link and calendar file for all monthly meetings between Sept. 2024 and May 2025.

Supported by funding provided by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services administered by the Library Services and Technology Act, through the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

The Learning Curve

Teaching Media Literacy in a K-12 Environment

This two-day in-person event October 22-23 introduces K-12 teachers and librarians to the basics of media literacy, and how to integrate it into their daily lessons. Lesley James from OSPI will also be Zooming in to talk about the standards revision that includes media literacy!

On day one educators will learn about mis, dis, and malinformation, including how AI contributes to this problem. Participants will be immersed in escape room-inspired challenges, and complete a UDL choice board.

On day two participants will explore current published media literacy curriculums and upcoming OSPI standards revision. Participants will spend the majority of the day immersed in their curriculum, collaborating in grade bands and/or content areas to marry the lessons they already present and media literacy learning.

Please visit the session's website for more information and to register!
