

Welcome to WLA Wednesday

December 27, 2017

On this day: In 2012, NASA unveils plans to capture a 500-ton asteroid in 2025.

The WLA office is closed for the holidays and will reopen on Tuesday, January 2. Your regularly scheduled WLA Wednesday will return next week!

If you need to get in touch with us with membership renewal questions or any other time-sensitive concerns, you can still reach us at info@wla.org. We will be monitoring email and voicemail while the office is closed.
