Library Snapshot Day

Washington Library Snapshot Day

Join the Washington Library Association and the Washington State Library in celebrating Library Snapshot Day, April 19-25, a full week of advocacy for our libraries, archives, and special collections across the state!

Show us a “day in the life” at your library or repository! We want to see your programs, your collections, your people (with their permission, of course!), your catalogs, your shelves, your study spaces, your meetings... All library things!

COVID-19 Concerns Ripple through Washington Libraries

The month of March marks more facilities, events, and classes closing or moving to digital due to concerns about the spread of coronavirus in Washington state. More and more events in the Seattle area are cancelling for fear of the spread; Emerald City Comic Con is looking for new dates in the summer, Libraries across the state are canceling events and removing toys and Makerspaces from public areas. Read how libraries are facing the spread of sickness and misinformation in American Libraries and on npr.com.

PNLA LEADS Survey

The Pacific Northwest Library Association (PNLA) LEADS committee is beginning to plan the next institute and would like your input on how to proceed with future LEADS sessions. Members of the Pacific Northwest Library Association are asked to complete this survey by April 1.
