Looking for assistance in attending conference? We're pleased to offer the Conference Attendance Grant this year to BIPOC association members as well as members who demonstrate financial need resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic. Applications close Wednesday, Aug. 11.

Please contact the WLA Office with any questions.

July Alki: You Are Not Imagining It

The July 2021 issue of Alki is live! Read a variety of stories across library types and from many different perspectives. We're especially excited this issue to feature guest columnist Kaetrena Davis Kendrick and her article "Leaving the Low-Morale Experience: A Qualitative Study."

While libraries have a unique mission, they also face the same challenges and successes that any workplace does. This issue highlights reflections and contributions on experienced organizational culture, including vocational awe, reducing workload structurally, and more. Articles offer rich examinations of integral library work, and how library workers experience working in libraries.

The Alki Editorial Committee thanks you for learning with them and welcomes your feedback.

News & Notes

Apply for the Emergency Connectivity Fund Program

Schools and libraries are invited to submit an application for the Emergency Connectivity Fund (ECF) program through Friday, Aug. 13.

The ECF program is administered by the Universal Administrative Service Co. and will help schools and libraries provide the tools and services their communities need for remote learning during the COVID-19 emergency period. The \$7.17 billion government program will provide funding to schools and libraries.

An information session about the ECF program is available, provided by the American Library Association (ALA), the National Digital Inclusion Alliance (NDIA), and the SHLB Coalition.

For more information, call (800) 234-9781.

TRANSFORMING TEEN SERVICES TRAIN THE TRAINER

Applications Open for Transforming Teen Services Cohort

Applications are now being accepted for Washington State Library's second cohort of Transforming Teen Services. The cohort runs Sept-Nov 2021. Applications are due Aug. 12.

The 12-week facilitated curriculum consisting of both synchronous and asynchronous work. Each week, there will be independent, self-guided work in addition to synchronous meetings each Thursday from 3-4 p.m. Participants will build skills in facilitating learning and gain an understanding of topics related to equity in teen services.

This course is mostly taught from a public library perspective, but those who could benefit from a deeper dive into serving teens, such as school library staff, are encouraged and welcome to apply. For more information, contact Sara White.

This grant is supported by funding provided by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services administered by the Library Services and Technology Act, through the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.
