

Engaging Students with Video: Student Produced News Broadcasts in the Library

WLMA Conference 2015

Yakima, Washington

Wayne Osborn, NBCT

Teacher-Librarian

Hillside Elementary School

Joint Base Lewis-McChord

wosborn@cloverpark.k12.wa.us

1. What are video news broadcasts: a working definition

2. Rational for engaging students with video

3. Common Core Standards that can be met via video production projects

4. Nuts and Bolts: How is it done?

- A. Present the opportunity to the students
- B. Tools of the trade
- C. Review, rehearse, record
- D. Scheduling time
- E. Release forms and other red tape
- F. Hardware
- G. Software

5. Bells and Whistles

- A. Green Screen
- B. Lighting
- C. Sound & Sound Effects
- D. Advanced Software
- E. Motion backgrounds & virtual sets

6. Resources

- A. Books
- B. Websites
- C. Software
- D. Hardware

7. The Future

- A. Weekly or Daily Newscasts
- B. vBrick Webcasting Kit

8. Detailed information and Internet links are available on the session wiki:

<http://engagingstudentswithvideo.pbworks.com>